Protagonist:

This is the person or thing that drives the story. Often referred to as the good guy – this is not always true. You should mention their name, age, personal characteristics (smart, funny, evil ... etc.) and what their role is in the novel or story.

Antagonist:

This is the person or thing that works against the protagonist. Often referred to as the bad guy – this is not always the case. You should mention their name, age, personal characteristics (smart, clever, sneaky ... etc.) and what their role is in the novel or story.

Conflict:

This can be person vs. person, person vs. nature, person vs. life circumstances... etc. You must describe the conflict.

Setting:

Describe when and where the story takes place. Also, describe the mood or tone of the setting. Is it eerie, pleasant... etc.

Plot:

The plot must have three or four major incidents from the story that allows me, the reader, the opportunity to get a good idea of beginning, middle, and end.

Climax:

The highest point of interest – revelations are made.

Denouement:

Always comes after the climax and ties all loose-ends.

Theme:

This is a life lesson we learn from the story or novel.
