3. Fold sections 1 and 4 in towards the center to make a vest. Sections 1 and 4 will cover sections 2 and 3.

4. Glue the arms (sections 5 and 8) to the back of the angle so that they look construction paper, at an angle like arms.

5. If your character is male, cut out a triangle between sections 6 and 7, so that it looks like pants. If your character is female, trim sections 6 and 7 so that it looks like a skirt. If your character is thin, you may want to cut the arms thinner in width.

6. To color the clothing, use color pencils or markers. You may also glue on different colors of construction paper, or use pieces of fabric.

7. Make a head and neck for your character using construction paper. You may choose to use yarn for your character's hair. Then make hands, legs, and shoes for your character.
